Naval Aviator Pilot, Alan Fischer

to speak at Del Mar Art Center 2:00 to 5:00 Sunday, August 18

Alan Fischer will present his book, "The Death Mist" to the public at a FREE book signing and lecture, Sunday, August 18 from 2:00 to 5:00 at the Del Mar Art Center Gallery.

He will discuss his experiences as a Naval Aviator Pilot for the United States Navy. This presentation is a unique opportunity to hear first-hand about the hardships & rewards of flying in combat.

Flying the A6 Intruder he deployed on board the USS Saratoga aircraft carrier making a cruise to the North Atlantic & Mediterranean, and a second combat cruise to Southeast Asia. There he flew 170 combat missions following in the footsteps of his father, who had flown combat missions over Germany in WWII as Skipper of a B-24. After the Navy he again followed his father and flew for American Airlines for 32 years.

Alan Fischer graduated from Villanova University class of 1968. Upon graduation, he entered the Navy's flight program where he earned his "Wings of Gold" in January 1970. He kept a journal during the cruises and wrote this book to pay tribute to the fine men he flew with. "The Death Mist" is a Faith-Based memoir of a Navy Combat pilot in Vietnam. He currently resides in Carlsbad.

Come and meet the author and listen to his fascinating story. The reception will be held at the Del Mar Art Center Gallery -1101-AA Camino Del Mar Del Mar, California. Free Parking is available in the underground parking at the Del Mar Civic Center, across the street.
